MASS TIMES SUNDAY AND VIGIL

Queen of the Rosary      Sun 8am, 10:30am
750 W. Elk Grove Blvd

St. Julian Eymard      Sat Vigil 5pm
601 Biesterfield Road      Sun 9:15am

“I will pour out a whole ocean of graces upon souls who will approach the fount of My Mercy.”

In the 1930s, Jesus chose a humble, Polish nun, Sister Maria Faustina Kowalska, to receive private messages concerning Divine Mercy. He directed Sister Faustina to record these messages in notebooks which later became known as her Diary.

On May 5, 2000, five days after the canonization of St. Faustina, the Vatican decreed that the Second Sunday of Easter be known as Divine Mercy Sunday.

Leading up to this year’s celebration of Divine Mercy Sunday on April 24th, fellow parishioners share what the Divine Mercy Chaplet means to them...

I am developing a habit of praying the Divine Mercy several times a week. I’ve noticed a gradual change in my spirituality. I am more aware of God working in my life. For instance, what I may at one time have thought was a fortunate circumstance, I realize now is an answered prayer. I’m trying to live my life by doing the next good thing, and God is opening my eyes to recognize opportunities in my daily life to carry out Christian acts of kindness and generosity.

—Cindy Mazzone

The Divine Mercy Chaplet is very special to me. I was able to pray it for my mother on her deathbed and feel at peace knowing that she received special graces. Additionally, I feel this is so important that I taught my 8th Grade Religious Education class to pray the Chaplet. It is so easy that you can pray it daily. I myself didn’t learn to pray this until I was an adult and I wish I had learned it sooner.

—Ellen Forster

Never stop praying this unfailing Chaplet of Mercy, the Divine Mercy. It was late at night when I decided to pray the Chaplet over my husband, dying from cancer. I was almost finished when he opened his eyes wide and asked, “Are you praying?” I was almost afraid to say yes, but then he said, “Keep praying.” That’s when I realized how much the Chaplet of Divine Mercy was helping him, and how much he needed it.

—Paula Friederich

TAX CREDIT SCHOLARSHIPS

Support Queen of the Rosary School Scholarships

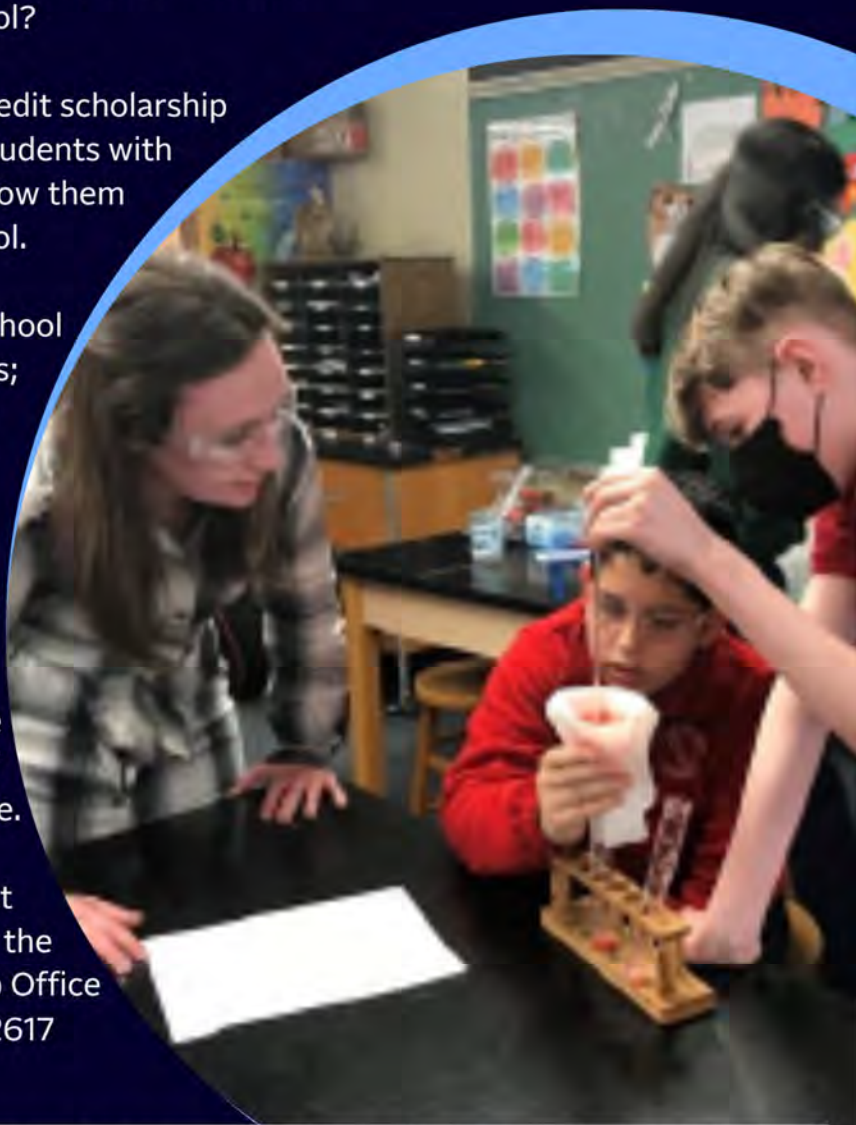

Looking for a way to decrease your Illinois state income taxes by 75%, while also helping fund scholarships for students to attend Queen of the Rosary School?

Make a donation to the Illinois tax credit scholarship program, and help provide eligible students with need-based scholarships that will allow them to attend Queen of the Rosary School.

Last year, at Queen of the Rosary School we were able to fund six scholarships; however, five students were left on the waiting list. This year, with your help, we hope to be able to raise enough funds to be able to offer a scholarship to every child on the list.

By contributing through the Illinois Invest in Kids program you can make the lifelong advantage of a Queen of the Rosary School education possible.

For more information, please contact the school office, 847-437-3322, or the archdiocese's Tax Credit Scholarship Office at tcs@archchicago.org or 312.534.2617
