“Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted”

(Matthew 5:4)

November is upon us. Behind us are warm days of Summer and colorful days of Fall. Ahead are the too often cold and dreary days that mark Winter. Throughout the month of November, we remember and honor our deceased—family members, friends, neighbors, fellow parishioners, and co-workers; remembering all those who have completed the tapestry of our lives with their love, grace and friendship.

As a faith community, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Parish marks this important month with our traditional All Souls Day Mass, celebrated on Wednesday, November 2nd at our St. Julian Eymard worship site at 7pm. Those parishioners we’ve lost in this past calendar year will be especially remembered with photos on a Remembrance Table. However, all who grieve a loved one are invited to attend this very special Mass.

Grieving is a journey that all of us must take at different times in our lives. No one’s loss is the same and we all grieve in different ways. But in each loss, Jesus provides comfort. Let us invite Jesus into our hearts to comfort us in our grief—praying, with confidence, that our loved ones already enjoy the Communion of Saints in heaven.

The OLBS Bereavement and Journey of the Heart (JOTH) Grief Sharing Ministries pray for you all and ask for God’s healing grace.

TMG Is Studying The Our Father

Perhaps the best way to learn to pray is by following the example of Jesus. The Our Father guides readers through the prayer Jesus taught us, and asks us to consider important questions as we learn to pray: What are we asking for? • What are we committing ourselves to? • What does the Our Father teach us about prayer?

As we wrap up the liturgical year and transition to Advent and Christmas, these next few months will be one of the busiest times of the year for our Art & Environment team. Have an eye for color and decor or want to lend a hand? Let us know today!

SCHOOL REPORT

First grade was very excited to have their first Art Appreciation lesson. Mrs. LaPenna taught us about Wassily Kandinsky. He was a Russian painter who used colors and shapes to create abstract art. Mrs. LaPenna also helped us create our own piece of artwork modeled after Kandinsky by using oil pastels, crayons, and colored pencils.

#BetterTogether

The trip was very fun because I was able to meet new people, from different states. Another reason the trip was fun is because all of the people my group helped were nice and thankful. The people in other groups were just as friendly as people in my group. But my favorite part was all the people I met. Cedar point was fun because the dragon ride was very cool.
—Andrew S.

This was my first year attending CHWC. I wasn't friends with anyone that was going so I didn't know what to expect. After the first day I already loved it and I couldn't wait to find out what the rest of the trip was going to bring. I loved the mass and the amount of energy everybody had. The second day was even better because we got to go to our worksites and work with new people. After meeting new people the trip was so much fun. I realized that if I sat there and did nothing the whole time of course I wasn't going to have fun but after I met a couple of girls and started participating more i really enjoyed it and I knew I had to go back next year.

CARDINAL CUPICH ON THE EUCHARISTIC REVIVAL

The Catholic bishops of the United States have launched a eucharistic revival over the next three years. Pope Francis has made a singular contribution to that effort with the recent release of his powerful and theologically rich apostolic letter on the liturgical formation of the people of God, “Desiderio Desideravi” (“I have earnestly desired”). (See vatican.va/content/francesco/en/apost_letters/documents/20220629-lettera-ap-desiderio-desideravi.html.) He tells us that his aim is to “invite the whole Church to rediscover, to safeguard, and to live the truth and power of the Christian celebration” as a means of more fully appreciating “the beauty of the Christian celebration and its necessary consequences for the life of the Church.”

This too must be the aim of our eucharistic revival. A central principle in that rediscovery is that in the ritual passed on to us from those disciples at the Last Supper, we encounter the crucified and risen Lord and are invited to participate in the paschal mystery by sharing in his work of saving the world. This engaging encounter by which the risen Lord invites us to share in his saving work is the core of our eucharistic faith, for, as the Holy Father observes: “The Christian faith is either an encounter with Him alive or it does not exist.”

To put it another way, the Mass is not a representation of the Last Supper, a play acting just to memorialize what Jesus did, much like we do on civic holidays that recall moments in our history. Rather, the Eucharist is a real encounter with the crucified and risen Christ, for, as the Council of Trent reminds us, what is really made present in the Eucharist is Christ’s victory and triumph over death for us who participate in it.

Over the next months we will be providing parishes with resources designed to help their communities join in this national eucharistic revival.
