OUR LADY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT PARISH

"Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." —Luke 23:42

Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe | November 20, 2022

Under Mary's mantle, and with the guidance of the Holy Trinity, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament seeks to share God's love by celebrating the sacraments, proclaiming the gospel, and serving the needs of all His children.

No one is beyond the saving power of God. That is at the core of God's hospitality. We've been speaking about how in Jesus, we see that God is not passive. He is not waiting for sinners to come to him. He goes out and finds them—not to condemn, but to save. Even on the cross, Jesus is seeking and saving the lost. Do we have that same passion, that same drive, to bring others to Jesus?

The two criminals who are sentenced to crucifixion along with Jesus are not there for petty misdemeanors. There was a lot of work involved with crucifixion, and Rome reserved this penalty for those it considered traitors and revolutionaries. Perhaps the two other criminals had heard of Jesus in their revolutionary circles. One calls out to him (in fact Luke says he is "blaspheming") and says, "Hey, we are supposed to be on the same side! If you are the Christ, the Messiah, the true King of the Jews, then give the sign to your followers so that the revolution can begin! Get us all down from here so that we can overthrow the Romans together!"

What the other criminal says in reply is really quite remarkable. He recognizes that he and his fellow revolutionary have broken the law, and that their punishment is just. He also knows that Jesus has done nothing wrong. Jesus has not committed any of their crimes. And yet, Jesus hangs there and does not protest. Perhaps in his agony his heart sought comfort in the scriptures, and the words from the prophet Isaiah came to that criminal's mind:

"He was pierced for our sins, crushed for our iniquity.
He bore the punishment that makes us whole,
by his wounds we were healed.
We had all gone astray like sheep, all following our own way;
But the LORD laid upon him the guilt of us all.
Though harshly treated, he submitted and did not open his mouth;

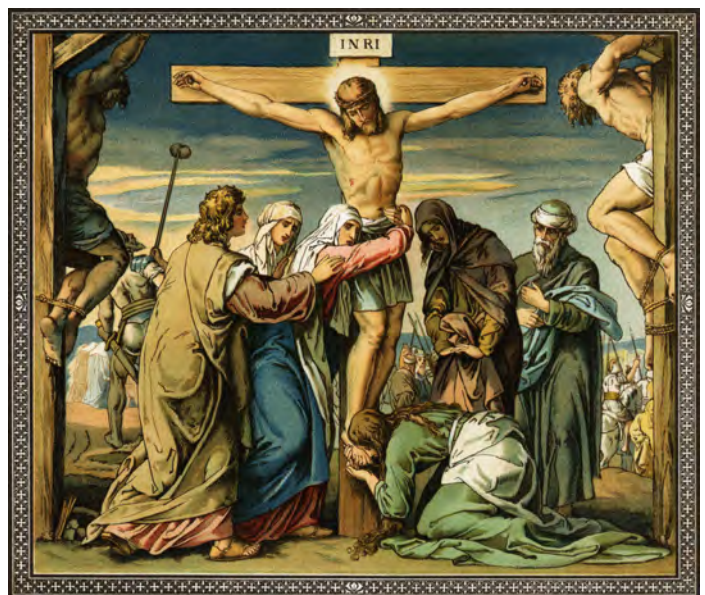

Like a lamb led to slaughter or a sheep silent before shearers,
he did not open his mouth."

In that moment, did the criminal's eyes finally open? Did his own blindness lift? Did he see Jesus for who he really was? How else to explain the plea of his heart: "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom."

God loves sinners. This is good news for all of us, because we have all sinned. Like the two revolutionaries, we too would be condemned justly, and the sentence we receive would correspond to our crimes. But God's love offers us something more, something beyond what we deserve and beyond what we could hope for.

Jesus endured all that he did because he knew the love of the Father. If I am truly a Christian—a follower of the Christ, the anointed one of God—then should not the love of the Father also move me? If you have not already done so, make an invitation to someone to join us for Mass on the 1st Sunday of Advent. It is our new year, a new start, a time for all to re-encounter the ever-fresh love of God. But how will they come, if you do not ask?

—Fr. Dan

TMG Is Studying The Our Father

Perhaps the best way to learn to pray is by following the example of Jesus. The Our Father guides readers through the prayer Jesus taught us, and asks us to consider important questions as we learn to pray: What are we asking for? • What are we committing ourselves to? • What does the Our Father teach us about prayer?

You are cordially invited...
