OUR LADY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT PARISH

The reason why I came baptizing with water was that he might be made known to Israel. —John 1:31

Second Sunday in Ordinary Time | January 15, 2023

Under Mary's mantle, and with the guidance of the Holy Trinity, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament seeks to share God's love by celebrating the sacraments, proclaiming the gospel, and serving the needs of all His children.

The Catholic Church mourns the passing of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI on December 31, 2022. Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament joined churches across the world in offering the Holy Eucharist for the repose of his soul on Thursday, January 5, 2023 at Queen of the Rosary. In honor of this solemn occasion, you likely noticed the bunting that went up over the entrances to both Queen of the Rosary and St. Julian, as well as the images of Pope Benedict XVI on our sanctuaries. Over the next few weeks, we invite you to discover more about our Emeritus Holy Father, and we will be including stories from his life and excerpts from some of Benedict's writings in this space and on our website to help with that. Below is a bit of reflection from Kathryn Jean Lopez on "The day Pope Benedict 'gave' me a message."

As the official invite from the Pontifical Council for Promoting the New Evangelization put it: "The Holy Father has invited you to be present ... in order to receive from him a copy of the message as the representative of women throughout the world."

The message was a repeat. In 1965, at the end of the council, Pope Paul VI issued "Messages to the People of God" from the Church. Rulers, artists, laborers, and women were among those addressed.

As it was explained to me, Pope Benedict XVI, at the last minute, had the idea to reissue the messages. I didn't ask him, but I assumed it was because they really hadn't been communicated the first time around — both because of the fog of the times and a lack of receptivity in the culture.

The message to women he handed me is beautiful and powerful. Some excerpts:

- "...at this moment when the human race is under-going so deep a transformation, women impregnated with the spirit of the Gospel can do so much to aid mankind in not falling."
- "Our technology runs the risk of becoming inhuman. Reconcile men with life and above all, we beseech you, watch carefully over the future of our race. Hold back the hand of man who, in a moment of folly, might attempt to destroy human civilization."

- "Women of the entire universe, whether Christian or non-believing, you to whom life is entrusted at this grave moment in history, it is for you to save the peace of the world."

This message is a game changer, and is begging to be convened in Catholic education, in Catholic homes, and to the world. Women don't need to be anything other than what they are naturally and supernaturally made to be. You can read the entire reflection from Kathryn Jean Lopez here:
