OUR LADY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT PARISH

Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time | July 2, 2023

Under Mary's mantle, and with the guidance of the Holy Trinity, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament seeks to share God's love by celebrating the sacraments, proclaiming the gospel, and serving the needs of all His children.

WELCOME...

The biblical texts of this first Sunday of July (holidays) send us strong words on hospitality. Throughout this summertime, we will have the opportunity to welcome or be welcomed. We will meet with different people from elsewhere. Today's first reading is about the prophet Elisha who is welcomed by a foreign woman. This woman is very generous towards him because she recognized him as a man of God. But she carries within her suffering she does not speak of: she has no son, and her husband is old. With great delicacy, Elisha promised her a son that she no longer expected.

Listening to this text of the Word of God, we understand that to accept others is to listen to their confidences, to share their joys and their sorrows. What is important is not the quantity and the luxury but the qualities of the welcome. We Christians have learned that through these people whom we meet, it is God who is there, it is him whom we welcome or refuse to welcome. Let us not forget that it is from our qualities of love and welcome that we will be recognized as disciples of Christ.

In his letter to the Romans, Saint Paul talks to us about the most important day of our life, the day when we were welcomed into the great family of Christians. As we have understood, this is baptism. Right now, it could be difficult to understand to its full extent. But we must know that in the early Church, the newly baptized came from a world without God. For them, life had no meaning. But God joined them and welcomed them. Baptism was for them a new birth; it was a radical break with the life they had known until then. On the day of our baptism, we were plunged into that same God's ocean of love in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. From now on we choose to welcome Christ and put him at the center of our life.

This Sunday's Gospel also speaks to us of welcoming. But it makes it very clear that our love for Jesus must come before all family ties: "Whoever loves his father or mother than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me." As we hear these words, we think of catechists who may ask themselves, "Are you kidding me? How does this Gospel help us teach our students to behave well with their families?"

Let us understand: it is perfectly normal for children to love their father and mother more than any other man. There are no stronger bonds than those between parents and children. We are all very attached to our parents; it is quite natural. And when they are no longer there, it is a hard time for some of us.

But when we look closely, we see that Jesus does not address the great crowd; his words are intended for his apostles. He has called them to follow him. But they must understand that Jesus is not a master among others; he is the Son of God. He is therefore above man. He alone we can and must love more than our beloved ones.

The Lord calls us all to be "disciples and missionaries." The disciple is the one who follows Christ. The missionary is the one who will proclaim him (Christ). Our acceptance of Christ and our attachment to him must come before all family ties. We know that this is not easy; we will have to assert ourselves in the eyes of the world and even in front of the family. We will face indifference and hostility. For many it is persecution. Jesus himself experienced these difficulties; but he went to the end of his mission, to death on a cross.

To welcome Christ, to prefer him to everything, to dwell in him, is what is proposed to us during this summer holiday. We will learn to recognize Christ through the people we meet. The role of the Church, our role as all of us, is exactly to welcome all those who feel attracted by him. It is from these qualities of acceptance that we will be recognized as disciples of Christ.

Every Sunday we gather for the Eucharist; it is God who welcomes us in his house. He invites us to his banquet. And at the end of every Mass, he sends us to bear witness in the world to this gratuitous love always offered. There are opportunities where we can make others happier. Let's not miss them. Through them, it is the Lord who knocks at our door. God is good all the time...

Your Brother Louis.

Gospel In Focus: July 9, 2023

God is the Lord of heaven and earth; we can give Him our burdens, and He will give us rest... "Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves." —Matthew 11:29

Discussion Questions

What was your greatest burden this past week?
How did the Lord walk with you?

How can we give praise to God while going through something hard?

What is the biggest thing you can think of, in creation? (mountains, oceans, stars, etc.) Spend time in prayer bringing your burdens to the Lord, in the light of creation.

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us “And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple—amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward.” (Matthew 10:42)

As we gather together as a community on Sundays, we are reminded of the profound impact our children have on our parish and the world. They are not only our present but also our future. With that in mind, we wanted to provide you with an update on Baptismal Preparation and upcoming opportunities for our young ones to grow in faith and participate in meaningful experiences.

First and foremost, we are thrilled to share an update on our Sacrament of Baptism Preparation. Starting in August, we are resuming in-person preparation sessions for parents and Godparents, allowing families to come together and prepare for this beautiful sacrament. In-person preparation sessions will take place in Shea Hall at our St. Julian Eymard Church on the second Monday of most months. Later this year, we will also be introducing family accompaniment from Marriage & Family Ministers. Additionally, we are updating our schedule for Baptisms in September as follows:

First Sunday of the month at St. Julian Eymard Church (601 Biesterfield Road, across from the hospital) at 10:30am, following our 9:15am Mass

Third Sunday of the month at Queen of the Rosary Church (750 W. Elk Grove Blvd., near Grove Jr. High) at 11:45am, following our 10:30am Mass

We invite families for Baptism to join us for Mass ahead of their child's Baptism where a special intention will be included for children receiving Baptism. Please contact our parish office for more information or to register for the preparation program and embark on this sacred journey.

In addition to the Sacrament of Baptism, we have some exciting events planned for our children and teenagers. From July 9 to July 13, we will be hosting Totus Tuus at our Queen of the Rosary Church and School. Totus Tuus is a week-long program designed to help children deepen their faith through engaging activities, inspiring teachings and interactive discussions. This program offers a unique opportunity for our young ones to grow in their relationship with God while having a blast. We encourage you to register your children and let them embark on this transformative faith formation experience: <https://olbsegv.org/totus-tuus/>

Our teens have another incredible opportunity to serve and live out their faith. On July 16, Mr. Van and a group of 10 teens will be traveling to Marshalltown, Iowa, for Catholic Heart Work Camp. This week-long event combines service, fellowship and spiritual enrichment, allowing our youth to make a tangible impact in the lives of others while strengthening their own relationship with God. While this year's spots have been claimed, we invite all interested teens to watch for news on next Summer's trip. Participating in this life-changing experience, teens will discover the power of service and love.

Looking ahead to the upcoming academic year, we are pleased to inform you that registrations are open for our Queen of the Rosary School and Religious Education program for the 2023-24 fall term. Partnering with parents as primary educators of their children, Queen of the Rosary School offers superior academics in a faith-based environment for Preschool/Kindergarten through 8th grade. Igniting Minds. Nurturing Souls. Success Starts Here. Discover more at <https://qrschool.org/>.

Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Religious Education teaches children to know, love and serve Jesus Christ and His Church. Faith formation is offered for children in Kindergarten through 8th grade, and preparing for the Sacraments of First Eucharist and Confirmation are the focus of the 2nd and 8th grade programs respectively. Discover more: <https://olbsegv.org/education/#RE>.

Whether you are considering enrolling your child in our school or engaging them in faith formation through our religious education program, we are here to support their growth and nurture their faith journey. We firmly believe that our children are our greatest blessings and hold the key to a bright future. Let us come together as a parish community to nurture their spiritual growth and provide them with opportunities to deepen their relationship with God.

For more information on any of these programs or events, we encourage you to visit our websites or contact the parish office at (847) 979-0901 or info@olbsegv.org.

Together, let us embrace the children as our future, guiding them on their faith journeys and empowering them to make a positive impact in our world.
