REFLECTION FROM CATHOLIC HEART WORK CAMP

This year's youth group mission trip was set in Marshalltown, Iowa, a town that had been ravaged by tornados and storms in the past couple years. The town has recovered somewhat though much repair work is still needed. Our OLBs teens were assigned to various work teams that worked on individual homes, veterans centers, schools and other such facilities, where the need was greatest. Some of the below photos depict the home of a grandfather who recently had to become caretaker for his 3 grandchildren, due to the death of his daughter (cancer) and he is also caretaker for his wife who recently had a massive stroke. We painted & stained the ramp from their home so he could get her in and out of the house when necessary. We also cleared & cleaned up his entire property which was completely overgrown. The rest of the photos depict activities at the camp which all of our teens enjoyed. For me, this was a most moving and fulfilling mission trip to say nothing of our teens. I cannot wait to share their experiences with you in future bulletins. Stay tuned!
