OUR LADY OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT PARISH

"Then repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." —Matthew 15:21

Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time | October 22, 2023

Under Mary's mantle, and with the guidance of the Holy Trinity, Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament seeks to share God's love by celebrating the sacraments, proclaiming the gospel, and serving the needs of all His children.

OLBSEGV.ORG | (847) 979-0901 | info@olbsegv.org

Worship Sites – Queen of the Rosary: 750 W. Elk Grove Blvd | St. Julian Eymard: 601 Biesterfield Road
School – Queen of the Rosary School: 690 Elk Grove Blvd | qrschool.org | (847) 437-3322

Today's Gospel is about the time the Pharisees and the Herodians were trying to entrap Jesus by asking him the question: "Is it lawful to pay the census tax to Caesar or not?... He said to them whose image was on the Roman coin. They replied, Caesar. At that he said to them, Jesus replied: Repay to Caesar what belongs to Caesar and to God what belongs to God." (Mat 22: 17-21)

Jesus' answer is about our commitment to Justice.

Justice is one of the four Cardinal virtues. The others are Prudence, Fortitude, and Temperance. I have to admit that I didn't fully understand what Justice meant until I had listened to the Catechism in a Year by Father Mike Schmidt. In the Catechism, Justice is defined "as the moral virtue that consists in the constant and firm will to give their due to God and neighbor." (CCC 1807) In other words, we as humans and Christians have duties that we owe to God, one another, and ourselves. Justice is giving to others what is rightfully owed to them.

An example is the Ten Commandments. The first three are about giving back to God what is due to Him as our creator. The other seven are about the duties we owe to one another.

St. Paul in his writings often refers to Justice in terms of being a debt that we owe God and others. Sin is also referred to as the failure to give God and others what is rightfully owed to them.

Justice also applies to duties that we owe to authorities such as our country, teachers, and bosses etc.

St Paul in his Letter to the Romans talks about the Christian's obligations to authorities, in this case the Romans. He says: "Let every person be subordinate to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those that exist have been established by God. Therefore, whoever resists authority opposes what God has appointed, and those who oppose it will bring judgment upon themselves." (Romans 13: 1-2) He goes on to say; "Pay to all their dues, taxes to whom taxes are due, toll to all whom toll is due, respect to whom respect is due, honor to whom honor is due." (Romans 13: 7)

St Paul is talking about giving to authorities what is rightfully due to them?

Another thing that I didn't realize until I had listened to the Catechism in a Year by Father Mike Schmidt is that the 4th Commandment is much more than just Honoring Your "Father and Mother."

"Although the 4th commandment is addressed expressly to children in their relationship with their father and mother... it extends to the duties of pupils to teachers, employees to employers, subordinates to leaders, citizens to their country, and to those who administer or govern it... This commandment includes and presupposes the duties of parents, instructors, teachers, leader, magistrates, those who govern, all who exercises authority over others or over a community of persons." (CCC 2199)

This commandment covers the duties of not only those subject to authority but also the duties of those in authority have to those under their care.

For more information, I encourage you to listen Father Mike Schmit's Catechism in a Year podcast. His daily podcast last about 15 to 25 minutes. It includes a reading of the Catechism itself but as important an explanation and reflection on the material covered. If you have ever listened to Father Mike Schmit, he is engaging to listen to. His podcast is designed to cover the whole Catechism in a year beginning January 1st. However, you can start anytime because his prior podcast each day is available anytime. You are free to do it in two or three years if you want. It's a great way to enrich your faith with a better understanding of what Jesus and his Church believes and teaches.

His podcast Bible in a Year is also very good. I wouldn't have been able to read through the whole Bible without it. Both are good tools to help you read through the whole Bible and the Catechism. You can find both on the Ascension Press website, the Hallow app, podcast such as Apple, Google, Spotify, Audible, and You Tube.

Discussion Questions

Is it harder for you to love God, or love our neighbor? Why? How are they related?

What does it mean to love the Lord with all your mind? What about your heart? Your soul?

Share a time when you did something for your neighbor because of your love for God?

returns 9/12/23 and will be reading: Genesis 1-11: God Makes a Start helps Bible-study participants put the creation story in its proper historical, cultural, and theological contexts, and goes beyond the story of creation to discuss the first sin and God's starting over with the flood. In the end, we come to see the story of creation—and re-creation—as part of God's ongoing story with us today.

Do you desire a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ? Are you looking to participate more fully in the life of the parish and connect with other young adult Catholics? First Grade has been very this year. Kathy Lesser from the Cook County Farm Bureau came to our classroom to teach us about farming. Our program was called "Where Does Your Food Come From? A Farm-to-Table Taco Adventure." We learned about how corn is farmed in Illinois. We also learned about the MANY products that come from corn. Corn tortillas were our most favorite item made from corn.

First grade has also been exploring the concept of light. We experimented with glow sticks and QR's new light table. We also tried looking inside of a box when there was no light visible and when there was light inside the box.

We are off to a GREAT year in first grade!
