As you probably know, the AfterMass! Youth Group went on our Catholic Heart Work Camp mission trip this past July to Marshalltown, Iowa for one week. Our teens had a great time helping those less fortunate and building up their relationships with the Lord and each other! We thank you all so very much for your generous donations that made it all possible!! Here are some brief experience summaries from our teen campers for you to enjoy! —Mr. Van

"I liked meeting new friends, helping at the thrift shop, and especially loved the night programs. I can't wait to go back next summer and hope to do the painting and house repairs." —Lola A.

"Overall, I enjoyed gaining the experience and knowledge of building a deck and ramp. Working with a team made it fun and memorable. As a non-Catholic I enjoyed the services, even though on the first day it was overwhelming. As the days went on it got better. My final thought would be that this trip was worth the chance if you're still undecided to go." —L.J. B.

"This year of CHWC was very meaningful for me. Yes last year was my first ever time attending it, but I feel that this year it felt more inspirational to me. I met way more people and talked way more. I really put myself out there this time. In my group we built a special bond, we were always laughing, and we made it fun while we were working. At the end of the camp I always feel closer to God and my faith is strengthened. I can't wait to go back and I hope many more people decide to go too." —Gabriela-Jessica M.

"I enjoyed the Catholic Heart Work Camp more than anything this summer. When my mom first brought it up to me, I wasn't very fond of going. I would've rather stayed home and been with my friends but I made new friends that summer at Catholic Heart Work Camp. And yes I will be going next year!" —Niko M.

"It was my second year going to CHWC and it was even better than the first time I went. This year I went again because I loved how amazing the camp was and I just had to go back to make even more fun memories. This year I got to volunteer at a veteran home in Iowa, and at first I was nervous about meeting my group, since I would be spending the rest of the week with them. But that week went by so quickly that I wished I could have stayed longer. I made amazing friends and my relationship with God had become closer than ever. At that veteran home,

I saw God's miracles every day and It was amazing to see how people survived big wars and lived to tell the tale. CHWC is not a "Jesus camp" but more of a "fun Catholic camp". Yes, we would have Mass every morning but it was not only to teach you about the bible, but to also encourage you to do your best every day and to know that God is with you at all times. The staff members were all super nice and they knew how to make some good tacos for Taco Tuesday. Overall, I love CHWC and I would recommend people going because it opens your eyes and you not only get to make new friends and have a good time, but the camp also helps strengthen your bond with God and it's such an amazing experience." —Monse M.G.

"Seeing as this was my first mission trip, I wasn't very hopeful or optimistic toward a good experience, but this trip turned out to be something that I very much enjoyed. It has allowed me to create a deeper connection with my faith and even find and create new friendships and people whom I very much appreciate. This trip was so successful in my eyes that I can't wait to go again next year." —Hyland S.

"My time at Catholic Heart Work Camp was a very fulfilling experience. I got to work at a thrift store that gives back to its homeless community as well as the local low-income families. I was able to find God in my life and I can't wait to go back next year!" —Joslyn T.

"I got a lot of out this trip as I had already gone once. I knew what to expect and was ready to participate a lot more. I chose the job of team reporter where I got to speak in front of everyone at the end of our day of work. I also participated in the lip sync contest with girls from all different parishes. This year was really fun and helped me to further build my relationship with God." —Kayce W.

"I thought the mission trip was super fun! I loved being able to help people with their needs. I was able to experience something not many people can, and I loved all the fun activities they had planned for us!" —Reese W.

returns 9/12/23 and will be reading: Genesis 1-11: God Makes a Start helps Bible-study participants put the creation story in its proper historical, cultural, and theological contexts, and goes beyond the story of creation to discuss the first sin and God's starting over with the flood. In the end, we come to see the story of creation—and re-creation—as part of God's ongoing story with us today.

Do you desire a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ? Are you looking to participate more fully in the life of the parish and connect with other young adult Catholics? Kindergarten started studying the science unit about the needs of plants. First students learned how to distinguish living from nonliving things. When they learned that plants are living things, they acted like scientists: they observed, made notes, used tools and materials from our science room, and performed a variety of hands-on experiments to learn more about plants. After finishing to study plants, students will continue to discover the needs of animals. Kindergarten loves science !
